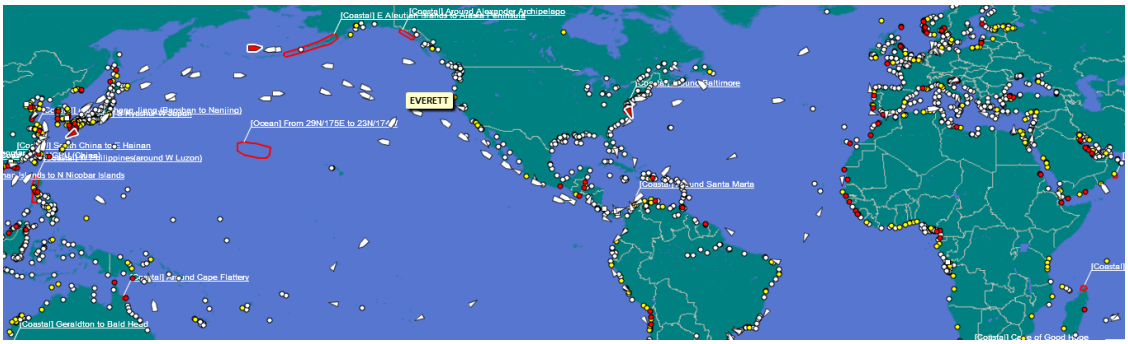
State of Operations Update

Dear Valued Customer,

We'd like to provide you with the latest Safmarine North America operational details.



Please see below for confirmed operational statuses of impacted vessels. Please be advised that vessel delays may be a result of a combination of standard seasonal contingencies and are not solely a result of weather impact – these details are subject to change.

Vessel Operations
Service	Vessel Name	Details
TP10	CSL Atlantic	One day late into Panama Canal due to weather delays in Far East. Working in Savannah one day late due to Labor Day contingency
TP16	Maersk Semarang	Vessel delayed 3 days into North America due to congestion in Shanghai caused by the typhoon.
TA2	MSC Vidhi	Expect 120 hour delay following congestion in Far East
TP11	Maersk Altair	Vessel delayed in Savannah until tomorrow 13:00
TP9	Santa Rita	Vessel delayed 41 hours into North America following congestion in Far East
TP8	Maersk Edmonton	Vessel delayed 3 days into North America due to late phase in

Terminal Operations
Port	Update
Newark	Congestion due to weather - rain and thunderstorms are predicted for the next several days.
Charleston	Crane 35 will be out for repairs for one week

Inland Operations

We'd like to keep you updated with an overview of inland operations to give you visibility into the delivery and rail capabilities in key regions. Please reference the below for your convenience:

YELLOW

- Imports: Delivering on or before last free day depends on commodity type and mileage. Hazardous, overweight and long haul are unlikely to be delivered within free time.
- Exports: Minimum of 7 days lead time to ensure truck power to make port/rail cut.

RED

- Imports: Most, if not all, containers are delivered after last free day.
- Exports: 7+ days required to secure capacity depending on commodity type.

Region	Location	Local	Long-haul	Reefer	Overweight	Hazardous
Northeast	Baltimore
	Norfolk
South Atlantic	Jacksonville
	Atlanta
	Nashville
Midwest	Chicago
	Cleveland
	Cincinnati
Gulf	New Orleans
	Mobile
	Houston
	Dallas

We'll continue to work closely with our vendors to find solutions to keep freight moving and will continue to provide you with timely updates regarding weather, marine, terminal, and rail operations in North America.

We thank you for your partnership. We truly appreciate the trust you give us in moving your cargo from one doorstep to the next, and we are excited to continue working closely with you.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to your local Safmarine agent. Our contact details are available on safmarine.com.

Together we go places.

Sincerely,

Safmarine North America
