Surge in Air Cargo Volumes Sees Flow into Dubai Suspended for 48 Hours

Cargo stakeholders – trying to deal with the Red Sea crisis-linked supply chain challenges – now face disruption on alternative supply chain modes.

Air cargo movement into Dubai – a major global trade hub – has been affected by a surge in volumes, forcing cargo terminal operator dnata to suspend inbound flows for 48 hours.

The temporary embargo, imposed to clear up cargo buildups, was due to begin last night.
